Regents School of Oxford Secures $4.7 Million for New Campus

Regents School of Oxford (RSO) announces the launch of their BUILD campaign and has secured $4.7 million in gifts towards its $6 million goal.

"We are so thankful to those who have come alongside us on this journey to advance Christ's kingdom and build for the future during our silent phase." says Jason Wood, Executive Head of School. These gifts provide a foundation for Phase One of Regents' BUILD Campaign which seeks to fund construction of a new Upper School, dining hall, and gymnasium which can serve 250 students in grades six through twelve. Design work is underway with our partners: McCarty Architects, Precision Engineering Consultants, and Innovative Construction Management. Project financing provided by BankPlus.

We encourage everyone who is passionate about discipling young men and women to love, serve and glorify God to participate in this campaign. We are graduating students who are not just ready for college or a job, but are ready to serve their church, family, marketplace, and country as well." said Beth Paul, RSO's Executive Director of Development. "Gifts to the BUILD campaign will benefit the Oxford Lafayette community for generations to come."

PHASE ONE PROJECT HIGHLIGHTS

- 45,000 total square feet
- 14 classrooms to house 6-12th grade students
