Regents announces $1 million in BUILD Campaign lead gifts

Regents School of Oxford announced lead gifts of over $1 million for their New Campus Project on Monday.

The gifts provide a foundation for the school's 2022 BUILD Campaign which will fund construction of a new Upper School, dining hall, and gymnasium serving 250 students in grades 6 through 12. Design work is underway with our partners: McCarty Architects, Precision Engineering Consultants, and Innovative Construction Management.

"These lead donors are excited to kickstart our work - Margaret Anne & William Alias, Jill & Joel Bell, Robin & Ben Bolton, Emily & Andy Callicutt, Carla & Sam Cole, Angela & Preston Gallaher, Tanya & Denny Glass, Lindsey & Jason Leach, Tiffany & Webb Lewis, Carroll & Stephen Moore, Alice Kelly & Wally Morgan, Beth & Doug Paul, Liz & Trace Randall, Jene & Art Smith, Brooke & Benton Smith, and Jenny & Earl Stubblefield. We are grateful for the loving generosity of these lead donors to begin our BUILD campaign." announced Jason Wood, Executive Head of School.

"The trailblazing support of these donors will pave the way for Regents to build quality facilities that match the quality of our programs." said Beth Paul, RSO's Executive Director of Development. "Generous gifts like these to our BUILD campaign will benefit Christian families in the LOU community for generations to come."
